Re: Midtown Garage Pedestrian Access

Midtown Plaza will be closed to the public effective Friday, July 25, 2008, at 6:00 p.m. This will impact access to the Midtown underground garage. Attached is a map showing the three points of pedestrian access to the garage.

1. ACCESS DURING STANDARD HOURS (Monday – Friday, 6:30 a.m. – 6:00 p.m.)

A. Bausch & Lomb Pavilion – Access from the street to the garage is available at the Pavilion located at the southeast corner of Broad St. & Clinton Ave through the underground tunnel. Access from inside the garage to the Pavilion is located in the garage's Southwest corner on the A Level near column A1. Parkers on the B or C level must use the escalators to go to the A level.

B. Euclid Street Entrance – Access from the street to the garage is available at the Midtown Plaza-Euclid Building entrance through the Euclid Building elevator lobby. Access from the garage to Euclid St. is located in the northeast corner of the garage. Access is available on all three levels of the garage near column 18.

2. ACCESS AFTER HOURS (Monday – Friday after 6:00 p.m., or Saturday and Sunday).

Broad Street Entrances – Access to the garage from the street will be available at the Broad Street Midtown Plaza entrance. Ring the bell at the entrance at the right side of the doors, and a security guard will allow access. You will be asked to either show a corporate id or asked to sign-in after hours. Use the Midtown Tower elevators to the garage. The Pavilion will not be accessible during after hours.

Remember the Midtown garage will be closed effective September 30th, 2008.

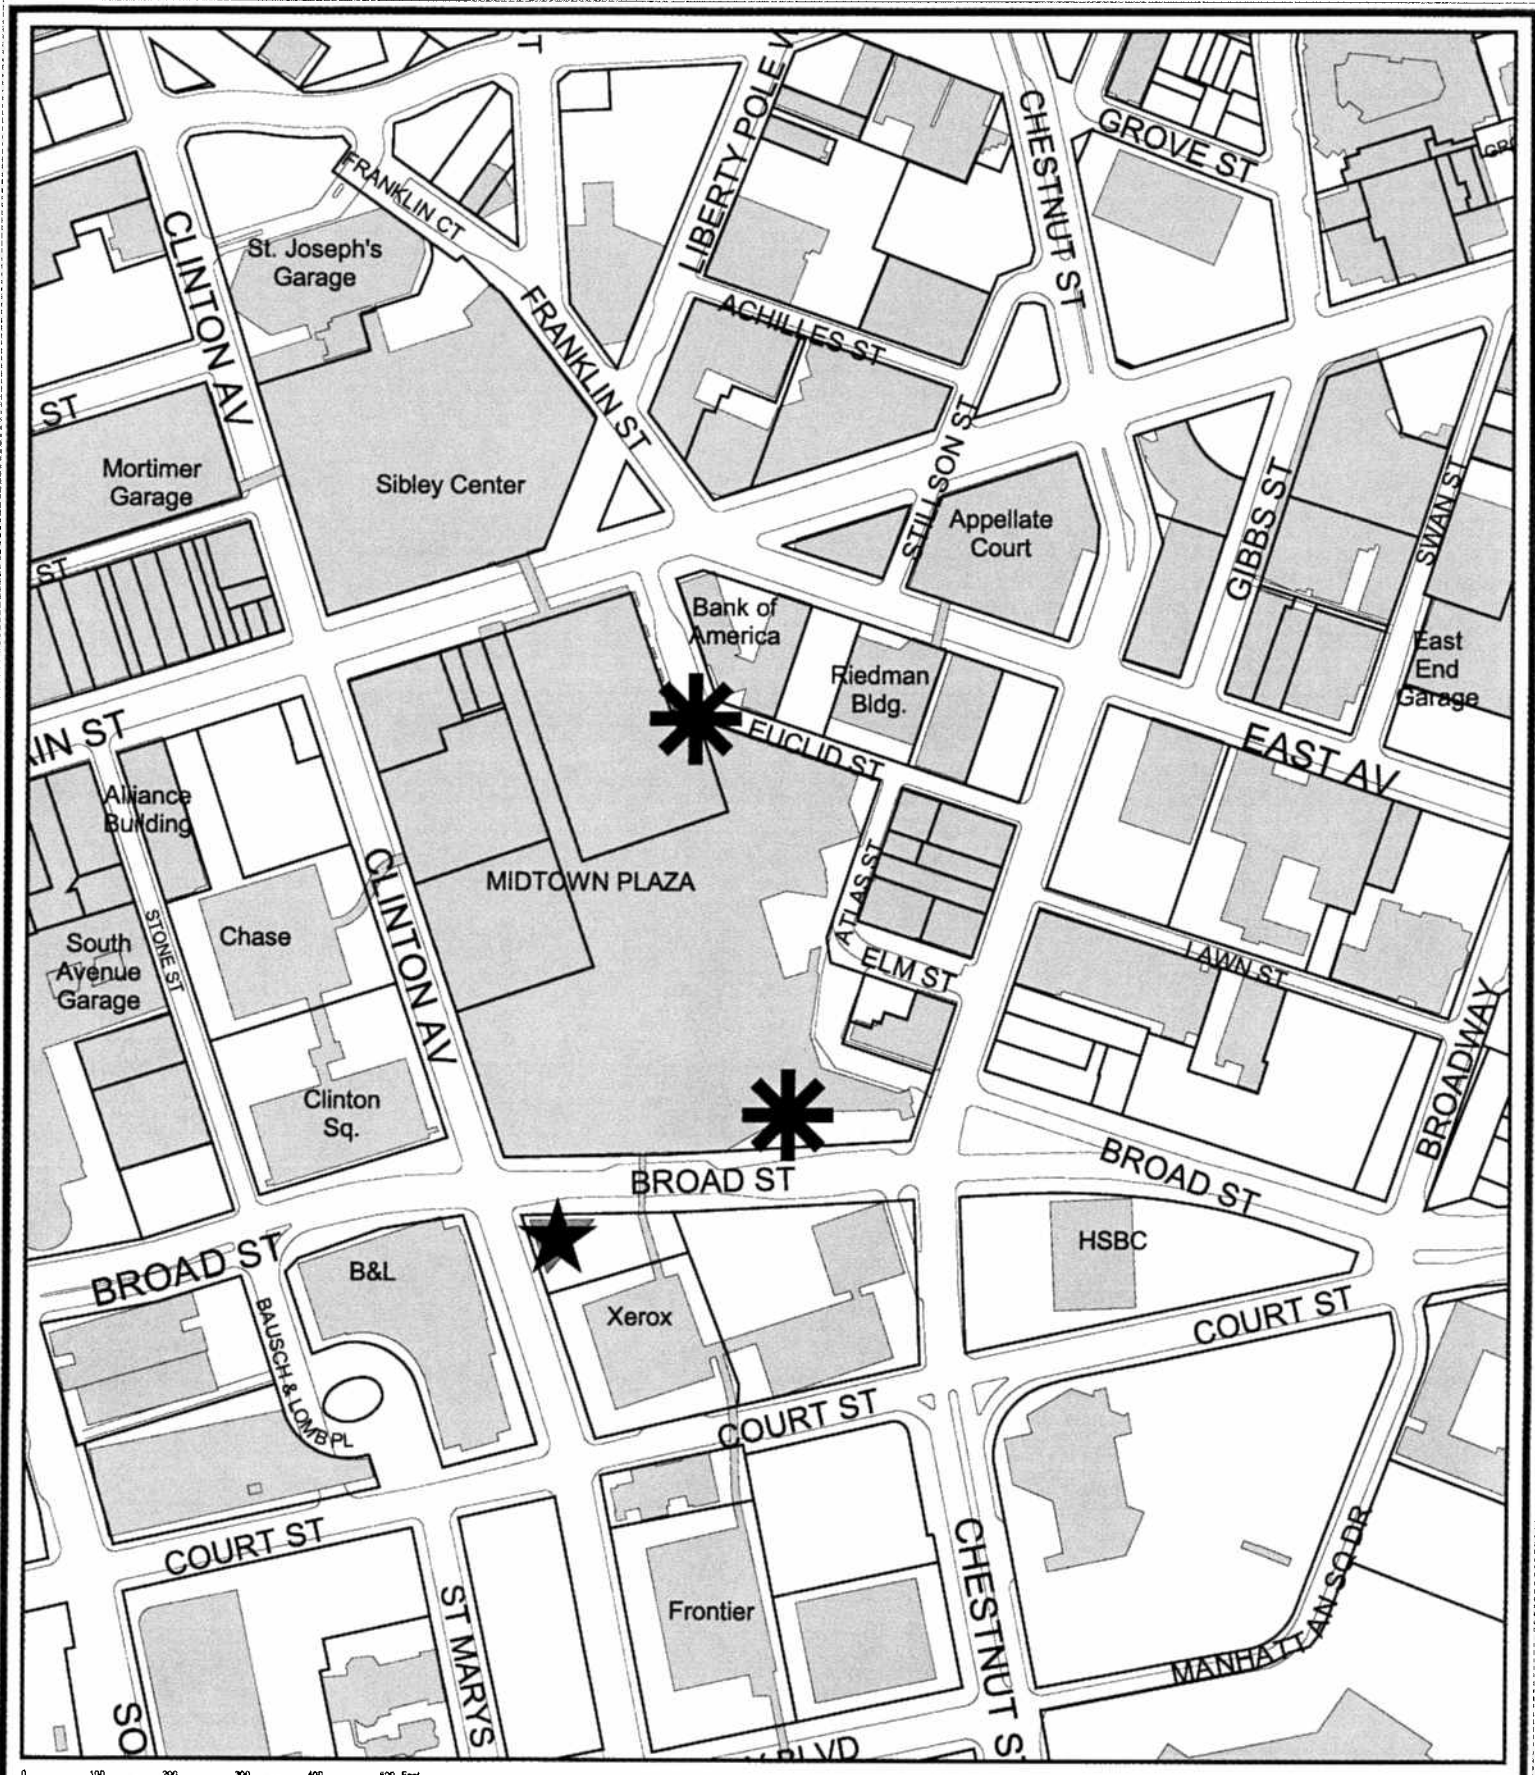

On September 1, 2008 the Mortimor St. garage and surface lot will be open as an alternative. Monthly fees for parking are $78 in the garage and $58 in the surface lot.
